Re: Lowenbein v. United Collection Bureau
Case No.: 11 CV 4639 (BNC)
Our File No.: 7740

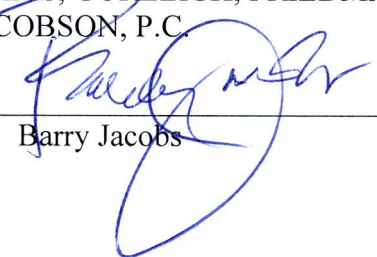

Dear Judge Cogan:

I represent the defendant, United Collection Bureau. I submit this as my application for an adjustment of the dates set forth in your Honor's Order of February 9, 2012. I have spoken with Mr. Fishbein, plaintiff's counsel, and he consents to the application.

On my return to my office, a review of my schedule for the next month reminded me that I will be out of town beginning February 28, 2012 and not returning to my office until March 5, 2012. I apologize to the Court and to Mr. Fishbein, but I completely forgot about my out of town engagement for that time period. As a result, I request that the dates set for the deposition of the parties and the date for beginning of the bench trial, each be adjourned and the dates to complete depositions and to start the bench trial each be extended out a period of 10 days. Mr. Fishbein has advised me that he has an engagement on March 13, 2012, and requests that any adjourned dates take that into consideration.

Thank you for your consideration of the above. I sincerely apologize for any inconvenience that my lapse of memory in Court has caused.

Respectfully yours,
ABRAMS, GORELICK, FRIEDMAN
& JACOBSON, P.C.
